DEAN MEASURE STARTS A GENERAL BOMBARDMENT

Every Agency That The Anti-Saloon League Can Rally Will Work to Defeat Amendment to The Rose County Option Law

Columbus, Jan. 14.—Every agency of the Anti-Saloon league is working to the limit against the Dean bill, to exempt villages and cities from the county option law. The bill was introduced in the senate on Tuesday, but both branches of the legislature, Gov. Harmon and Lieut. Governor Pomerene already are within the firing lines.

Because the "wets" are admittedly in control of the senate, and may have the house, the liquor fight this winter may be the most spectacular since the organization of the Anti-Saloon league. For the first time in its history it is fighting with its back to the wall. Announcement has been made that all efforts will be directed to holding ground already gained. Unless some law enforcement proposition appears later, and that is not likely, the league will not attempt to advocate any measure. All previous records for resolutions, memorials, petitions and delegations will be broken.

The campaign which will reach white heat when the Dean bill is before the house, started immediately after the election. Already the state organization of county Sunday school associations, state federation of school organizations and the state grange, with combined memberships counted by hundreds of thousands, have adopted resolutions protesting against amendment of the county option law. Every day is piling up the showing which will be made. Friday Methodist Sunday school teachers and laymen, meeting here, fell into line. Their resolutions declare the law should remain untouched until counties which voted under it have opportunity, this fall, to register their verdict at the polls. Liquor dealers are charged with being afraid to give the voters this chance. "I would brand Ohio as a retreating state on moral issues," the resolutions declare of the Dean bill. Gov. Harmon is asked to take advance judgment by fighting the measire and vetoing it if it reaches his desk. Pomerene's influence also is sought.

The racket raised by the Dean bill fight will be heard in every corner of Ohio for the next two years, as the liquor questions will be one of the chief fighting grounds in the coming constitutional convention.

Joseph Pratt Is Known By A Salem Man

Yes someone knows Joseph Pratt, the man who is lying in a dying condition in the Massillon hospital.

This bit of information was gathered by a News reporter Saturday morning from Guy Bosten, an employe of Grove Gum company, who stated that he had known the unfortunate man and cared for him while he languished in the county jail during the year 1902, until the time he was committed to the Massillon State hospital, six weeks after. Mr. Bosten also said the man was taken to the Lisbon jail by Sheriff Leonard who found him living in a shanty boat along the Ohio river near Wellsville in a wretched condition. The man was at that time unbalanced mentally, his insanity said to have been caused by the crushing of his head by the fall of slate in a mine. The late Judge Martin was presiding in court at that time he having committed the man to the state institution.

Whether or not there are any living relatives of the aged man or from whence he came to Wellsville, Mr. Bosten does not know.

THE M'KINLEY AVENUE TRACK TO BE RELAID

East End patrons of the Salem Electric Street Railway company as wel' as the others who trolley out to the east end of town will be afforded better traction facilities in the near future as extensive repairs to the line in that end of the city have been planned and the starting of the repairs only await the decision of Service Director McNeelan, of whom permission has been asked to tear up the paving.

D. L. Davis, secretary of the company, has made a formal request of Director McNeelan asking that the company be allowed to tear up the pavement along the line east of Union avenue, as soon as the weather permits.

It is the intention of the company to raise the old track bed considerably from Union avenue to the East End and install over 500 new ties. When this is done the cars will have no trouble in climbing the hill, since the majority of the trouble and delaying of cars in this part of the city was caused by the sunken tracks, causing the bottom of the cars to scrape along on the pavement. Sup't Scott stated Saturday that the cars would not run beyond Highland avenne until the repairs were completed.

RURAL LIFE SUBJECTS UP

CONFERENCE IN CANFIELD BEGAN FRIDAY.

IMPROVE THE SCHOOLS

This Idea Emphasized by Prof. Bricker of Ohio State University and Prof. Harbout of Andover—Make Home Attractive.

Canfield, Jan. 14.—With an address of welcome by Mayor W. J. Gee and a response by Prof. J. F. Guy, chairman, the Country Life conference opened with a session in the college chapel Friday evening. The principal address of the evening were given by Prof. G. S. Bricker, Ohio State university, on the subject, "The Problem of Rehibilitating Rural Communities," and Rev. C. E. Turley, Linworth, O., on the subject, "The Country Church and Rural Life."

At the education session Saturday afternoon, Supt. S. A. Harbout,' of Andover, spoke on "Industrial and Cultural Education for Rural Communities." He brought out the fact that the rural school is the source from which eminates the educational forces of every country community. The educational sentiment and standard of a community may be judged by the condition of the local school building, the efficiency of the teacher and the salary paid for his services. Every one acknowledges that the relation which exists between hundreds of Ohio country schools and the communities in which they are located is not what it ought to be. Rural people lose interest in their schools because the schools fail in a vital way to touch the real life of the community.

In speaking of agriculture in the public schools, at this session, Prof. G. A. Bricker said: "There is perhaps no other educational subject of greater importance before the school public of today than that of the study and teaching of the scientific principles of agriculture. Various writers have pointed out that during the past half century, since the state colleges of agriculture were established, the great mass of farmers have not been reached as they should. The remedy of this shortcoming lies in the teaching of agriculture in the local schools of the people. In many parts of Ohio this is being done, and the success of such teaching is very astonishing."

"Making the Country Home Attractive for the Boys and Girls," will be discussed at the farm session this evening. "The Country Boy Problem," also, will receive attention.

MONEY FOR PRIZES TO MT. UNION STUDENTS

Alliance, Jan. 14.—At a rally during the chapel hour at Mt. Union college was announced by the president of the Oratorical association that an amount of money had been appropriated for prizes to be awarded each year among the Mt. Union students entering the contest and preparing orations, essays and readings. The contest will be held each year near commencement and all students of the college are eligible to enter. Two prizes of $25 and $15 will be awarded for the two orations taking first and second place. Two prizes of $25 and $15 will be awarded for the two essays taking first aind second place, and prizes of $15 and $10 will be awarded to the best two readings.

It was announced that Heaton W. Harris, class of 1882 of Mt. Union college, and at the present time U. S. consul general for Europe is the donor of the prizes for the essays.

At the next meeting of the Woman's Club league of Youngstown a movement will be started to have club women and others within reach of its influence use shorter hatpins.

MUST ELECT A MEMBER OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

A special election will be held in Columbiana county next November in connection with the municipal and township elections to name a member of the Ohio constitutional convention scheduled to meet next January.

The convention will take up many proposed amendments to the present state constitution including taxation amendments, the referendum and recall and non-partisan ballot system. The big issue before the gathering will be the liquor question. The drys are expecting to ask for an amendment providing for state prohibition and the wets for a license law to replace the present tax system.

Columbiana county is entitled to one delegate to the convention, the basis being the same as the representation in the state legislature.

POPULATION OF SALEM IS 8,943

Salem city's population, according to figures taken at the 13th census in 1910, was 8,943, the official report having reached this city Saturday from Washington, D. C., where it was sent out by E. Dana Durand, chief director of the census department.

This is an increase of 1,361, or 17.8 per cent over the population in 1900, the 12th census having showed a population of 7,582. Twenty years ago the population was 5,780, or 3,163 less than it is today.

While many had predicted that the 1910 census would show a population of 10,000 to 12,000, others had been more conservative with their estimates, as it was a recognized fact that Salem had not undergone a phenominal boom within the past 10 years. While the increase is not a flattering one, this last census report indicates that Salem has maintained a steady growth along conservative lines that will mean as much for a substantial growth in the future as the sudden booms that other cities in this district have been experiencing. Under the new census report, it is mandatory for city council to change the boundaries of wards, which work will no doubt be taken up at an early session of the city fathers.

Other 1910 census figures made public Saturday are: East Liverpool, 13th census 20,387, 12th census 16,485, 11th census 10,956; Wellsville, 13th census 7,896, 12th census 6,146, 11th census 5,249; Alliance, 13th census 15,803, 12th census 8,974; Massillon, 13th census 13,879; Steubenville, 13th census, 22,391.

Alliance's growth in the past 10 years has been 76 per cent, which phenomenal increase is explained by the fact that Alliance included Mt. Union within its boundaries a few years ago. East Liverpool's increase in population amounted to 23 per cent.

PIONEER S. S. UNION WILL HOLD SESSION

The 138th session of the Green Township Sunday School union will be held in the Lutheran church, Greenford, Sunday afternoon and evening. Following is the program:

Evening session, 7 o'clock—Song service; devotional exercises, Delmore Roller; recitation, Edith Lewis; recitation, Esther Bush; address, Rev. I. J. Cahill; music; benediction.

AN OLD TRAMP, ILL, IS SENT TO THE INFIRMARY

Sebring, Jan. 14.—Peter Burk, an old tramp, of 74 years of age, was taken to the Canfield infirmary on Thursday morning by Trustee Gideon Santee. The old man has been occupying a cell in the city jail for two weeks. He has been quite sick and has required the attention of a physician and the officials. The old man has had no regular home for over 40 years. When he came here he was suffering from exposure and lack of nourishment.

BOYS RAN AWAY FROM THE FAIRMOUNT HOME

Alliance, Jan. 14.—Early Friday morning Charles and James Burk quartered at the Fairmount Children's home, took a nation to run away and were successful for a few hours.

A telephone message from Freeburg stated that the boys were in that vicinity and a short time afterward the runaways were returned to the institution.

PUBLIC LIBRARY TO OPEN AT 10 A. M.

Beginning on Monday the Carnegie free library of Salem will open at 10 a. m. for the accommodation of patrons of the reading and reference rooms and for those borrowing books. Having the library open all day has long been contemplated by the management and it is done largely for the convenience of students who wish to use the reference books and for shopmen and clerks who may desire to change books at the noon hour.

The public, as well as the schools, has been asked by the librarian, Mrs. Helen Carey, to send in topics as early as posible and enable the librarians to have time for research. Clubs and societies studying topics are greatly benefited by this cataloguing and research work and are willingly assisted by those in charge.

The library will open at 10 a. m. and continuously serve the public until 8 p. m., every day except Saturday. On Saturday evenings patrons may visit the library as late as 9 o'clock.

WIFE THREATENED TO POISON HIM HE SAID

Lisbon, Jan. 14.—P. A. Walters, of Lisbon, has filed suit in common pleas court asking for divorce from his wife, Mary Walters, who left him several years ago. He stated in his petition that she had threatened to poison him, was cruel and unkind and abused his five children. The parties were married in 1879 and have always lived in this city. Walters was a hard working blacksmith for many years and when by reason of ill health he had to give up his shop he moved to a farm a short distance from the city where he has since lived.

The Mahoning Valley Alumni association of Western Reserve university met at the Youngstown club in Youngstown Wednesday, the occasion being the annual dinner and meeting.

THE HOME MAY ASSIST SCHOOL

ADDRESS ON THIS SUBJECT BY SUPT. JOHNSON.

PUNCTUALITY NEEDED

Regular Hours, Health, Plenty of Sleep and Fresh Air Essential to the Child's Success in School—Mothers' and Teachers' Club.

"In What Way May the Home Assist the School?" was the topic of a paper by Supt. J. S. Johnson at the first meeting of the season held by the Mothers' and Teachers' club, at Columbia street school building, Friday afternoon. Prof. Johnson discussed some of the helps under the heads of attendance, sleep and detecting physical defects. "There is too much isolation of forces," said the speaker. "It is not long since the school was isolated but the best results are obtained with all institutions co-operating. The home can assist materially in a number of ways; first of all, that pupils be present on time and in condition to work. Irregular attendance is a fruitful cause of loss to the pupils."

Statistics show that three-fourths of the pupils are present three-fourths of the time and their absence not only means the loss of daily work to the pupil but to the school, as the teacher must do the work a second time. Loss of interest follows frequent absence and a child not interested will not succeed. Pupils are often absent from insufficient cause; excuses are not always dependent on the children.

Over half of the excuses are not because of the childs' condition but "going to the fair" or "on an errand and could not return in time." Recently Prof. Johnson examined the excuses in two of the upper grades and found that in 31 cases only 14 were for illness and in the other 44 only 26 were for illness. He also mentioned the loss to the pupil in cases where parents requested an excuse for "a music lesson." The reason he gave for refusing such requests is that pupils being excused once a week would lose one-fifth of the week's work on a given subject.

The subject of seeing that pupils have regular hours of sleep and the early hours was next discussed. He said that authorities are of the opinion that sleep in a quiet room is more restful than in a noisy one on account of the activity of the brain.

That parties on school nights deprive children of a sufficient amount of sleep was one objection mentioned and that their minds are too much taken up both before and after such affairs. Some instructions given by the superintendent to the teachers at the beginning of the year were then read. These said for teachers to refuse to aid in the preparation of entertainments where the rehearsals are given after 8 p. m., and to refuse to give the names of pupils in such cases. No school parties are allowed on school nights and no sleigh rides in grades below the Seventh after 6 p. m. In grades Seven and Eight evening sleigh rides by schools should be chaperoned by the teacher and a parent.

Prof. Johnson advised keeping careful track of the physical defects in children and mentioned specifically "swollen glands, adenoids, enlarged tonsils and defects of vision." He urged the visiting of schools by parents, that the pupils may feel their parents' interest and that teachers and parents may better understand each other. In closing he showed a chart of statistics compiled in Philadelphia showing how such diseases as measles, mumps, chickenpox, etc., increase from September to May and how in the other months they decrease as the weather permits children to spend more time out of doors. Open air conditions have been found especially advantageous in 20 cities where open air schools devote half of the day to study and the rest to play or open air exercise.

The meeting which was begun with a piano solo by Miss Ethel Jackson, a Seventh grade pupil, and the minutes of the meeting read by Miss Helen Lease, was concluded with the election of officers and deciding to hold the meetings every two weeks at 3:30 p. m. A nominating committee consisting of Misses Cook and Horne and Mrs. S. N. Sallume was appointed by Miss Ella Snyder, the retiring vice president. A unanimous vote was cast for the following: President, Mrs. T. T. Church; vice president,

THIS PAPER AND THE DEAN BILL.

The Dean bill, now before the Ohio legislature, is already attracting the attention and interest of the people of this city and county, because of the probability that it will pass. Briefly it seeks to exempt municipalities of 4,000 or more inhabitants whose voters so decide by majority vote from the operations of the Rose county option law. This county voted "dry" in 1908, but East Liverpool and Wellsville voters cast a majority in the "wet" column. Under the Dean law they would, therefore, have remained "wet" with the rest of the county dry.

As three years ago, the temperance and liberal forces all over the state are lining up for a bitter struggle, for the Dean bill is expected to precipitate the "wet" and "dry" controversy which for the time seemed settled. From experience it may be predicted that this community will be bitterly divided on the question. Friends will become enemies and in some instances enemies will become friends in the stress of the controversy.

While this paper might yield a certain influence by opening its columns only to one faction and suppressing and belittling the argument of the other side, yet it seems to us that our duty as a newspaper for the entire community will be better performed by giving both sides a square deal in our columns. This, probably, will not satisfy the extremists on either side but it will be approved by the large majority that will be called upon to decide this matter quietly in the seclusion of the voting booths. They will want all the information obtainable on both sides of the issue and in no place can they obtain it better than in the columns of the local press.

The voters of Adams county who have recently been disfranchised for selling their votes are said to be highly indignant because a lot of newspaper and magazine writers have flocked to Portsmouth, the county seat, to secure data for articles for their journals. To such a pitch was that indignation aroused that a plot to tar and feather certain of the scribes was discovered. In a somewhat less intense degree the same spirit is occasionally displayed in other places. Detection in some offense, arrest and even conviction does not seem to be considered half so objectionable as publicity in the newspapers. Let someone become entangled in the meshes of the law or become a party to some disgraceful incident and then let the newspapers publish the facts. Immediately there is an indignant protest from the principals and their friends. The newspapers are criticised for meddling in other people's affairs, for having no regard for the feelings of those interested, etc. These people forget, of course, just as the indignant citizens of Adamas county forgot—or never knew—that the press in a semi-official capacity represents the public and when an individual commits a crime, or strays from the path of rectitude it is decidedly the public's business and the public has a right to know all about it. His act is an injury to society, a stumbling block in the way of civilized progress, and the press by printing the news about him is performing a public duty just as essential as that of the jury of his peers that convicts or the judge who sentences.

If the Sulloway old age pension bill which has just passed the house at Washington gets through the senate successfully Civil war veterans will receive according to age, pensions as follows: Sixty-two years, $15 per month; 65 years, $20; 70 years, $25; 75 years, $36. While the government has been very liberal with most of the men who responded to the call to arms when the nation was threatened, there are some who for some slight technical reason have been neglected. It is hoped that this bill will provide them with deserved comfort in their declining years.

The last of the cases growing out of the building of the new Pennsylvania state capitol has been settled About $5,000,000 of the price paid for that building was plain graft and only about $1,500,000 has been recovered by the state. But several of the grafters are serving time in the penitentiary, several more are dead as the result of worry over their disgrace and one is in an insane asylum. The wages of sin are being collected.

"Is the horse holding his own?" asks an exchange, the question being suggested by the increasing popularity of automobiles and the increasing use of gasoline tractors and trucks. Well, those who attended the big horse sale in Lisbon recently and noted the high prices paid got a very definite impression that the horse will not be down and out for several decades.

DEAD.

Breathe there the man, with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said:
"My trade of late is getting bad,
I'll try another eight-inch ad."
If such there be, go mark him well;
For him no bank account shall swell,
No angels watch the golden stair
To welcome who never asks for trade
By local line or ad, displayed,
Cares more for rest and worldly gain,
And patronage but gives him pain.
Tread lightly, friends; let no rude sound
Disturb his solitude profound.
Here let him live in calm repose,
Unsought except by men he owes,
And when he dies go plant him deep.
That naught may breath his dreamless sleep;
Where no rude clamor may dispel
The quiet that he loved so well,
And when the world may know its loss,
Place on his grave a wreath of moss,
And on a stone above, "Here lies
A chump who wouldn't advertise."

SITUATION UNCHANGED

Dun's Review Sees Little Activity in Business Conditions.

New York, Jan. 14.—Dun's Review of Trade says today:

"Business conditions remain substantially unchanged. From different leading cities come reports which indicate a diversity of conditions with, on the whole, a fair degree of activity. While at most centers the lull usual after the holidays is still in evidence to a greater or less extent, it is no more pronounced than in previous years.

"Interest in iron and steel centers largely on developments in the export trade. Recent orders from abroad include an important contract for tinplate, while a substantial tonnage of structural material has been sold in Canada for bridge building purposes."

NEW JERSEY GIRL TO ACT AS GOVERNOR

For Twelve Hours Miss Phillips Will Rule

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 14.—New Jersey will have a girl governor for at least twelve hours and she will have the full power of a chief executive. Miss Ida B. Phillips, confidential secretary to Governor John Franklin Fort, will steer the ship of state from the expiration of the present governor's term at midnight Monday night until Governor-elect Woodrow Wilson takes the oath of office shortly after noon Tuesday.

During that time "Gov." Phillips who is considered one of the prettiest girls in the state, will have authority to call out the militia, pardon convicts, prevent electrocutions, sign requisitions and exercise other powers given to governors.

Under the provisions of the constitution Governor Fort's term expires at midnight Monday night, but there is no provision for the filling of the office until the new governor takes the oath of office.

WORRY AND HURRY

are the two greatest foes to digestion—and very few people reach the age of forty without falling a victim to indigestion in some form or other.

Undigested food is a serious menace to health and is the cause of headaches, sleeplessness, flatulency, gas and distress in the stomach, despondency, nervousness, bad breath and impure blood.

In such cases Vinol has a marked beneficial result. It seems to go directly to the seat of trouble, strengthens and tones up the tired, weakened nerves of the stomach, enabling one to digest with ease the very foods that once caused distress.

A case has just come to our attention in Barre, Vt. Mr. Samuel Wheeler suffered with a stomach trouble for years and had taken all kinds of medicines without relief, and at last found a cure in Vinol. He says Vinol was worth five dollars a bottle to him. (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

If you suffer from any form of stomach trouble, try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Frank F. Trimble, druggist, Salem, O.

DOCTORS FAILED. RESTORED BY PERUNA.

Catarrh of the Lungs Threatened Her Life.

"I had several hemorrhages of the lungs. The doctors did not help me much and would never have cured me.

"I saw a testimonial in a Peruna almanac of a case similar to mine, and I commenced using it.

"I was not able to wait on myself when I began using it. I gained very slowly at first, but I could see that it was helping me.

"After I had taken it a while I commenced to raise up a stringy, sticky substance from my lungs. This grew less and less in quantity as I continued the treatment.

"I grew more fleshy than I had been for a long time, and now I call myself well."

Tom Lewis Says He Can Earn a Living in Mines

Columbus, O., Jan 14.—Tom L. Lewis of Bridgeport, three times elected president of the United Mineworkers of America, and waiting now to hear the result of the recent referendum election, in which he was given a spectacular fight by John P. White of Oskaloosa, Ia., stopped off in Columbus to address the closing session of Ohio miners of district No. 6 in convention here. He is on his way to Indianapolis, where he is going to put the finishing touches on his report to be submitted at the international convention, which opens in Columbus next week.

"I am not in a position to say what the result of the election, to be announced at the international convention in this city next week will be," said Mr. Lewis, addressing Ohio miners, "but I have every reason to believe that your present international president will be re-elected."

This remark was followed by loud applause and cheers.

"If it is the will of the miners," continued Lewis, "that I retire as president when my term expires, April 1, there is one thing that will not take place—Tom Lewis' training, his experience and information he has acquired as president of the miners will not be sold for a salary to the opposition."

Mr. Lewis said he was not so old that he could not take up the pick and go back to the mines and earn a living.

KELLOGG HARD ON ROCKEFELLER

Standard Oil Company Assailed by Government's Counsel

ACCUSES JOHN D. OF UNTRUTH

Picture Drawn by Milburn Shattered in Argument Before Supreme Court in Anti-Trust Case—Company's Oppression Never Equaled in History of Country, Declares Kellogg—Even Distrusts His Ability to Present the Facts.

Washington, Jan. 14.—The favorable picture of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey, which John G. Milburn, attorney for that corporation, drew for the benefit of the supreme court, was somewhat marred after Frank B. Kellogg, special counsel for the government in the case against the Standard Oil company, had devoted more than three hours in enumerating the alleged offenses of Mr. Milburn's client.

Lawyer Kellogg was particularly harsh on John D. Rockefeller, charging him with having made an affidavit that was "untrue."

Hardly Tell the Facts.

"This is a case against a holding company," said Kellogg. "I have listened with admiration to the charming story of counsel, but I shall not deal in romance. I intend to present facts that are in this record. I want to say to this court on my oath as a member of the bar that the equal of this record in oppression has not been found in the commercial history of this country. I distrust my ability to present the facts."

Mr. Kellogg introduced his argument by going back to the formation of a South Improvement company in Pennsylvania, through the agency of which, he alleged, the Standard Oil company began the business of rebating. He declared that the South Improvement company was the "rock" upon which the Standard Oil company was builded. He recited again the story of the contracts by which the Standard Oil company enjoyed the benefit of rebates, not only on its own shipments, but also on the shipments of its competitors.

$5,000,000 in Rebates.

Even after the Pennsylvania legislature in response to public demand, had dissolved the South Improvement company the Standard continued to enjoy the rebates through other influences. He estimated that $5,000,000 in rebates were paid to the Standard Oil company by the Pennsylvania railroad alone.

He declared that the Pennsylvania railroad, to meet the drain upon its resources by the rebates paid, had advanced transportation rates on oil, already prohibited, to six times what they were before.

In 1881, when, in the course of a suit brought in Ohio upon a trade agreement, he met the charge that the Standard Oil company of Ohio was in a combination with other concerns to create a monopoly and control prices, Mr. Rockefeller, so Lawyer Kellogg charged, made an affidavit denying any combination or affiliation with other companies. Mr. Kellogg said that this was at a time when the companies were combined in the trusts of 1879.

Justice Holmes suggested that under the peculiar conditions of the trust of 1879 the affidavit of Mr. Rockefeller may have been "literally true."

"I think not," quickly replied Mr. Kellogg with great emphasis.

Affidavit Untrue, Charges Kellogg.

"I believe that even shaving the wind as close as you can and giving him the benefit of every doubt, Mr. Rockefeller's affidavit was untrue. I know this: Either he testified falsely then or he testified falsely in this case."

"Did Mr. Rockefeller try to explain his affidavit when it was brought to his attention?" asked Justice Lurton.

"No," sharply replied Mr. Kellogg. "He could not explain it."

The government's attorney then discussed the aquisition of competing plants. He referred to Mr. Milburn's statement that the Standard Oil company has purchased only a few unimportant plants, thereby conferring a favor on the men who sold them, because they were no longer profitable.

Mr. Kellogg said in reply that the record showed the purchase of 225 independent concerns, of which 75 have been dismantled. He declared that it was useless for Mr. Milburn to contend that no important independent refineries had been dismantled.

He cited the case of the Manhattan Oil company of Ohio, which the Standard had purchased for approximately $2,800,000 and that plant was dismantled. He referred to the purchase of the new refinery built by the Cudahys in Indiana, which was dismantled just as the refinery had been completed and ready for business.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

James Long, 50 years old, was killed while cutting timber in the woods south of Cortland Wednesday noon.

James Long was killed and Frank Casterline, of Warren, injured when a heavy limb from a tree which they were felling for wood broke.

One of the 200 large laymen's conventions fixed for this winter and spring in the United States, is expected to be held in Akron, February 18-21.

William Reese, aged 65, made four attempts in 40 minutes in the Canton city prison to commit suicide Thursday and only alarms by other prisoners and prompt medical attention saved him.

Augustine Scarpenalla, aged 24, an Italian laborer of Steubenville, was knocked from a work train by a bridge girder into Long run Thursday and was killed. A brother has become demented over his death.

Novel Use of a Billboard.

During a recent run on a western bank a billboard was set up in the street where the line of depositors were gathered, and its frank statement of the bank's condition did much to restore confidence. Many people dropped out of the line after reading the sign, which bore this legend: "This bank can pay every dollar on deposit. It is one of the strongest banks on the Pacific coast. It has been your friend. Jealous competitors have worked to bring you here. Every person in this line should show their loyalty by leaving at once. Your money is safe. Why, then, remain here doing an unkind and foolish thing? Break ranks." The run lasted thirty-six hours, but the bank stood the strain and remained solvent. An enterprising merchant took advantage of the incident to secure a novel advertisement for his store. It happened that he was prepared to move into the adjoining building and the picture of the crowd before the bank had the appearance of heading for his new quarters. A cut of this picture was used for his announcement, the legend reading, "Your money is safe if you follow the crowd to"— giving the name of his own establishment.—Bookkeeper.

A Cordial Welcome.

A well known American portrait painter, armed with a full length portrait study taken off the stretcher and rolled under his arm, ventured to call on Whistler one Sunday morning. His modest knock brought the great man to the door, says a writer in Great Thoughts. Opening it a little way, he thrust out his head and demanded irritably:

"What brings you here? What do you want?"

The artist stammered out that he was a student and had a study that he would much like to show Whistler.

Whistler said, "M-m-m—just wait a minute!" and, rushing back into the room, he turned every picture with its face to the wall and removed from the easel the canvas on which he was engaged. Then, motioning the American in, he sat down and said: "Now, what do you want? You know I'm fearfully busy today, but sit down—sit down!"

A Puzzled Artist.

Of unsigned paintings the Dusseldorfer Zeitung tells an amusing story, which may interest picture buyers. Achenbach, the German artist, enjoyed a vogue some years ago. A certain collector had bought from an art dealer a seascape represented as a genuine Achenbach. Afterward it was pronounced to be a copy. The buyer brought an action against the dealer, who turned the tables by declaring that his picture was genuine and the other was a copy.

Achenbach himself was summoned by the courts to tell which was which. Amazed at the absolute similarity of the two paintings, he gazed at them for a long time, inspected them closely, front and gack, sniffed them and then frankly admitted he could not tell which was the original and which the copy.

A Town In the Philippines.

Santo Domingo has a population of about 2,000 and is entirely different from any other town in the Philippines. In the first place, all the buildings are of stone, whitewashed. The roofs are made of cogon grass, closely trimmed so as to afford no purchase to the severe typhoons which sweep over the islands. The streets are about twelve feet wide, many of them paved with stone. Some walls extend along both sides of the streets their full length, giving them the appearance of lanes. The walls are about three to five feet in height, broken at intervals for entrance to the yards, which in turn are separated from each other by stone walls. Most of the yards are clean and exceptionally neat and attractive.—Manila Times.

The White of an Egg.

The white of an egg is made up of little cells filled with albumen. By beating the white these cells are ruptured and oxygen from the air is inclosed, which gives the white and light appearance to beaten eggs. The white of a stale egg will not inclose as much oxygen, will not be as light and as easily digested as that of the fresh egg and, of course, less valuable. The importance of beating the egg in cold, pure air is readily seen.

Complete Lives.

We should all strive to make our lives complete. Many people only half live. Health without usefulness, intellect without unselfishness, pleasure without duty—these are incomplete and unsatisfying elements of living.

How They Do It.

In a hotel in a certain city is the following notice:

"Boarders are taken by the day, week or month. Those who do not pay promptly are taken by the neck." —Lippincott's.

A Luxury.

"But," objected the heiress, "I have been accustomed to every luxury."

"That's all the more reason why you should marry me," replied the impecunious suitor. "I'm a luxury myself."

Courage.

What one needs to cultivate is a tenacity of purpose that will not quail nor turn aside, a courage that in emergencies dares to separate from the crowd, that never recognizes defeat.

Laughter.

Laughter is recommended as a cure for indigestion. It looks easy to the person who is not afflicted with indigestion.—Toledo Blade.

Terrified by threats through the mail to murder her, Miss Pearl Holley, daughter of Mrs. Martha A. Holley, of Canton, has taken refuge at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edward Blunk, in Uhrichsville.

THREATEN TO QUIT WORK

Miners in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Kentucky May Walk Out.

Columbus, O., Jan. 14.—The trouble in the Youghiogheny and Ohio mines at Glencoe was taken up by the convention of miners from district No. 6. The Glen Coal company, according to the miners, has been interfering with the check weigher at the mines, refusing him the right to go on the tipple.

The miners claim he should not be interfered with by the operators and unless it is stopped a strike is threatened in all of the Youghiogheny and Ohio mines in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Kentucky.

The delegates unanimously voted to refer the matter to the executive board of the international organization, which meets in Columbus next week.

GAS, INDIGESTION AND DYSPEPSIA GO

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from indigestion, dyspepsia or out-of-order stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking some Diapepsin

If your stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak stomachs should take a little Diapepsin occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, sour risings, gas on stomach or belching of undigested food, headaches, dizziness or sick stomach, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour, out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved in five minutes after taking a little Diapepsin.

Go to your druggist and get a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

Lactic Acid is the arch enemy of the teeth. Under the microscope have been discovered twenty-two kinds of bacteria in the mouth; these feeding upon the particles of food carelessly allowed to remain in the teeth produce lactic acid. This acid seeks out the weak spots in the enamel and there decay immediately begins.

SOZODONT

SOZODONT is a marvelous antiseptic and unexcelled deodorizer, yet it is so fragrant and delicious to the taste that every child who has used it loves it—an advantage to the mother who is teaching her children to clean their teeth.

SOZODONT TOOTH POWDER has a lasting fragrance. It is free from grit and acid, and gives the teeth a pearly lustre.

Prosecutor Says He Will Show Mrs. Schenk Poisoned Water

CLERK TELLS OF AUTO RIDES

Dan Phillips Refuses to Answer Certain Questions Which, He Said, Might Be Incriminating—Often Went on Night Trips With Mrs. Schenk. Druggists and Chemists Help Build Up State's Case.

Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 14.—More sensational testimony was given in the trial of Mrs. Laura Farnsworth Schenk, accused of poisoning her husband, John O. Schenk.

Dan Phillips, a music store clerk, whose name has frequently been mentioned in connection with the case, was the principal state witness.

Phillips testified that he knew Mrs. Schenk intimately and that he had frequently taken auto rides with her at night in her limousine car.

Three times after the witness was asked questions by State's Attorney J. B. Handlan bearing upon whether he had or not criminally intimate relations with Mrs. Schenk he declined to answer, standing upon his constitutional rights to refuse to answer any questions that would incriminate himself.

Would Incriminate Himself.

"You mean to say, Mr. Phillips," said Judge Jordan, "that you decline to answer because you would incriminate yourself?"

"Yes, sir," replied the witness.

"Then you need not answer," returned the court.

Phillips' acquaintance with Mrs. Schenk began when she called at the store where he was employed to buy a musical instrument. Phillips said she came back to the store frequently to talk to him, and finally invited him to go autoing.

Her visits, he said, became so embarrassing that he finally requested her not to come to the store again and then he arranged to meet her at designated places outside. He said:

Frequently Spoke of Her Husband.

"Frequently Mrs. Schenk spoke to me about her husband and I remember that several times she said she did not think he would live very long. So far as I knew Mr. Schenk never knew that I took auto rides with his wife."

Other witnesses included Dr. O. W. Burdettes, Mr. Schenk's dentist; Herbert O. Baer, a druggist; Professor J. W. Mallet, chemist of the University of Virginia; Florence Coleman, a colored servant in the Schenk home, and Drs. F. L. Hupp and J. T. Thornton. Much of their testimony was a repetition of what had been brought out previously and was devoid of interest.

Lead and Arsenic in Blood.

Dr. Thornton is the physician who helped Dr. Hupp diagnosis the poison symptoms in Mr. Schenk and his testimony was of considerable value to the state. Dr. Thornton made three tests of Schenk's blood and as many of his urine, finding symptoms of lead and arsenical poisoning in all tests.

He admitted under cross-examination, however, that the same symptoms might have been found if the patient had taken large quantities of mercury or bismuth into his system.

Professor Mallet testified that in the water he analyzed he found eight-tenths of a grain of arsenic to the pint. The arsenic was in the form of Fowler's solution.

By the testimony of Dr. Hupp and Mr. Baer it was established that the water analyzed by Professor Mallet was the same that came from the Schenk home and was taken from the same bottle from which Schenk drank.

Sensation Today.

State's Attorney Handlan has promised a sensation for today. He said he would probably put on witnesses to prove absolutely that Mrs. Schenk put acetate of lead and arsenic in her husband's medicine and drink.

That the defense to be put up by Mrs. Schenk's counsel will be a double one, has been clearly indicated by Mr. O'Brien, who declares that his client is the victim of a conspiracy designed to enable her husband to get a divorce.

He has summoned witnesses by whom he will try to prove this and also has witnesses to prove that a streak of insanity runs through Mrs. Schenk's family.

The woman defendant now appears more interested in the trial than she has at any period since it began, but her demeanor is such as indicates that she fully expects to be acquitted.

Poverty Causes a Man's Suicide.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 14.—Dr. I. W. Comstock, aged sixty-seven years, formerly a rich and prominent dentist and talented artist, was found dead in the office of a friend in the "When" building. Comstock had committed suicide with chloroform and a gas tube. He had been despondent because of recent poverty.

Bowling Green, O., Jan. 14.—Mrs. Edward White, forty years old, an epileptic, fell into a ditch near her home near Bays and was drowned.

Promises won't overcome hair trouble. The manufacturers of Newbro's Herpicide promise nothing which is not justified by an intelligent use of this preparation. The desired end ultimately becomes an accomplished fact. This is the reason that Herpicide has thousands of satisfied friends all over the world.

By keeping the scalp clean and healthy and destroying the dandruff germ, Newbro's Herpicide makes beautiful hair. Herpicide prevents the hair from falling and allows it to grow unhindered and naturally except in cases of chronic baldness, which is incurable.

Aged Lucius Tuttle Loses Left Leg by Amputation.

Boston, Jan. 14.—Lucius Tuttle, for years president of the Boston and Maine railroad and holder of numerous positions of trust, underwent an operation for the amputation of his left leg.

The necessity for the operation was brought about by a bad condition of Mr. Tuttle's blood. Two years ago he suffered from the bite of a strange insect. His leg refused to heal, although the sufferer received the best treatment that money could procure.

CONFESSES FIRING STORE

Circleville, O., Jan. 14.—Kirby Conrad, thirty years old, confessed to setting fire to his store at Stoutsville Dec. 20, before an investigating committee composed of Deputy State Fire Marshals Richards and Lee at Stoutsville.

Conrad was taken to Lancaster for safe keeping, as the fire destroyed $20,000 worth of property and feeling against him is high. Conrad carried $2,000 insurance on his general store.

A Reliable Cough Medicine.

Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 14.—As a result of a rear-end collision between two passenger trains on the New York Central railroad at Batavia five passengers are dead, two of whom have not yet been identified, and twenty were injured, two of whom are not expected to live.

The railroad officials say that the accident was due to the engineer of the second train running past signals.

Wellston, O., Jan. 14.—James Gregory, thirty-eight years old, hanged himself to a rafter in his barn east of this city. Gregory went to the barn supposedly to feed the stock. His wife, following to summon him to breakfast, collided with the dangling corpse. The suicide has so shocked the wife that physicians fear she will not recover.

Camels That Ride.

The Bedouins decorate their baggage camels in the most fantastic manner. A huge pack saddle is surmounted by a still larger pannier. Above this again is a sort of chair in which the rider sits. The long strips of leather hanging down the sides are simply for decorative purposes. I have seen camels when too young to go on long treks being carried in these panniers, and they are always used for the Bedouin children.

This tribe has many quaint and curious customs. Perhaps the most curious of these is the manner in which they show their esteem for certain strangers. One evening when a young camel had been killed for the meal I noticed the women collecting the blood in a bowl. Then, to my astonishment, they started painting my camels on the necks and flanks with the blood. Unknowingly I was the recipient of the greatest honor that can be paid a stranger. The blood dried on and remained for a long time, acting as a talisman among all the Sherarat tribe.—Douglas Carruthers in Wide World Magazine.

A Tragedy of Instinct.

The processionaries are rather strange caterpillars. A single string of them five or six yards long has just climbed down from my parasol pines and is at this moment infolding itself in the walls of my garden, carpeting the ground traversed with transparent silk, according to the custom of the race. To say nothing of the meteoroigical apparatus of unparalleled delicacy which they carry on their spine, these caterpillars, as everybody knows, have this remarkable quality—that they travel only in a troop, one after the other, like the blind of Breughel or those in the parable, each of them obstinately, indissolubly following her leader; so much so that our author having one morning disposed the file on the edge of a large stone vase, thus closing the circuit, for seven whole days, during an atrocious week, through cold, hunger and unspeakable weariness, the unhappy troop on its tragic round without rest, respite or mercy, pursued the pitiless circle until death arrived.—Forum.

Called For Glory Divine.

Among the customers in a drug store one day last week was a little girl who is known to her playmates in that vicinity as "Peggy." As she stood waiting for her turn it could be noticed that she was repeating something under her breath in her effort to remember what her mother had sent her to buy.

"Mother wants five cents' worth of glory divine."

"Of what?" said the young clerk, who was standing there as if stunned by a hard blow of a baseball bat.

"Glory divine, glory divine," came the reply in a louder voice than when she had made the original request.

"You had better go home and have your mother write it down on paper, little girl," said the clerk, feeling that the girl was too sure to argue with him.

Soon she returned, and, handing the note to the clerk, he read, "Five cents' worth of chlorate of lime."—Philadelphia Times.

A Bit of Sicily.

"There is no Italian town more picturesque than the Sicilian capital, Palermo," writes a traveler. "In its port lie crowded the queerest coasting craft I have ever set eyes on. Sailing ships of all rigs, their hulls painted all the colors of the rainbow, nose up against the quay, where mule carts, whose drivers are shouting at the top of their voices, wait to take away the merchandise. The narrow street where the custom house officers examine the goods brought ashore is a place of terrific noise. When a driver, two clerks and two custom house officers are discussing the contents of a bale or a cask it seems as though murder must be committed within the next few seconds. But somebody signs something, the cart moves on, and everybody laughs."

Murdering Shakespeare.

"I never hesitate to cut and slash and change any play until it suits me," said Stuart Robson to his legal adviser on one occasion.

"I suppose you edit Shakespeare with a blue pencil?" replied the lawyer.

"You can just bet I do."

"Then, I imagine, you would plead guilty to an indictment for murdering the Bard of Avon?"

"No; I would not, but I would admit dissecting his corpse."

Needs Prodding.

"It is a great mistake, Mabel, to trifle with the affections of a man who loves you by encouraging some one else."

"Well, he's a little slow, auntie. I think he needs a pacemaker."

Kindness.

Life is short, and we have never too much time for gladdening the hearts of those who are traveling the same dark journey with us. Oh, be swift to love; make haste to be kind!—Amiel.

Specialization.

Doctor—What can I do for you?

Patient—I have cut my index finger.

Doctor—Very sorry, but I am a specialist on the middle finger.—Fliegende Blatter.

Auricular Evidence.

QUICK CONSUMPTION—to last stage.

32 YEARS 1878-1910

The woods are full of remedies for Croup, Grip, Coughs, Catarrh, Asthma, etc., though many thousands of families in the United States and Canada regard Brazilian Balm as King of all. But it is surely King in another line, for it was the first and only remedy in history offered to the public for the prompt cure of Typhoid (at any stage) and for the prevention and cure of contagious diseases with an unbroken record of success of over 30 years behind it.

Its secret lies, as all scientific men agree, in its power to instantly kill the noxious germs, and the disease vanishes—or if given in time, (15 drops 4 or 5 times a day) it absolutely prevents, even to diphtheria and Smallpox. Thus in an epidemic a 50c or $1.00 bottle will safeguard a whole family, no matter how greatly exposed.

We do not invade the domain of the Doctor, for no doctor to our knowledge, claims to prevent and instantly cure this class of diseases—but must let them "run their course." Their idea is that what would kill the germs would kill the patient, yet this simple, safe and harmless balsam, wihout a trace of narcotics, minerals or poison in it, has never failed, or lost a case of croup, grip, catarrh, pneumonia, typhoid or contagious diseases in 30 years; thus proving that drastic and dangerous drugs are not required in an effective anticeptic. So utterly are the germs annihilated out of every organ and tissue that no evil after results follow, as deafness, blindness, etc., after measles or scarlet fever. If Helen Keller had been treated with Brazilian Balm I believe she would not have been left deaf, dumb and blind after measles in her seventh year. It even cures Quick Consumption down to last stage if all narcotics are abandoned, which kills the effect of the Balm. Put in a wound relieves in an hour and cures the Blood Poison over night. Here again it stands alone. At druggists 25c 50c and $1.00 a bottle or send us $1.00 for two $1.00 bottles, you to pay express.

VERIFY IT.

The public statement of a Salem citizen is in itself strong proof for Salem people, but confirmation strengthens the evidence.

Here is a Salem citizen who testified years ago that Doan's Kidney Pills relieved sick kidneys and now states the cure was permanent. Can any sufferer from kidney ills ask better proof? You can investigate. The case is right at home.

Mrs. Henry Wickline, 61 West Green street, Salem, Ohio, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have been so greatly benefited that I am in a position to recommend them to all persons suffering from kidney trouble. I was afflicted with this complaint and my back ached intensely. Hearing good reports about Doan's Kidney Pills from a friend who had used them, I was led to obtain a box from Bolger & French's drug store. Before I had finished the contents, my condition had improved and I am now in much better health."

Mrs. Wicklin gave the above testimonial in July, 1906, and when interviewed on June 8, 1909, she added: "Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of kidney trouble and I have never had a return attack. I am glad to confirm my former endorsement of this remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

CONFESSES TO SLAYING CHILD

Mystery at Albany, N. Y., Cleared by Boy's Mother

DOESN'T KNOW WHY SHE DID IT

Widow Gave Her Four-year-old Child Poison After Being Unable to Place Him in an Institution—Lad Was Found in Field Near Albany and Was Thought to Be Work of Kidnapers. Questioning Breaks Mother Down.

Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 14.—"Yes, I did it, I don't know why, but I was distracted and wasn't aware what I was doing."

These were the first words of the confession to poisoning her four-year-old boy George, with carbolic acid in the suburbs of Albany about ten days ago that Mrs. Edith Melber, a Schenectady widow, made to Chief of Police Joseph M. Quigley.

The woman, although caught in many contradictions after her arrest, did not appear fearful of her ability to convince the authorities that no suspicion of any nature should attach to her.

Finally she broke down and confessed that she was the mother of the boy found near Albany and then she admitted that she had poisoned him. She told a pathetic story of how she had tried to have the child cared for in various institutions in Albany, but had failed because she had been unable to pay for his maintenance.

She said that she had to work for her living since her husband died about three years ago and that she found it difficult to do this and care for the child, too.

After visiting the Albany home for children, she said, and being unable to place him there because none of the officials was present she became discouraged. It was then, she said, that she decided to dispose of the child.

The police officials were greatly moved by the pitiful recital of the facts.

A detective from Albany came this evening to take the woman back there.

REPORT FAVORS PEARY

House Committee Would Promote Explorer to Admiralship.

Washington, Jan. 14.—The house committee on naval affairs adopted the report of the subcommittee which considered the question of honoring Captain Robert E. Peary for his discovery of the north pole.

The committee authorized a favorable report on the bill to promote Peary to rear admiral of the navy engineer corps, retired, with the highest retired pay of that grade and to give him the thanks of congress.

Representative Bates of Pennsylvania reported the bill to the house and he is ordered to make all proper efforts for its passage. It is the hope of members of the committee that the house will pass the bill at an early date.

Captain Peary's friends are greatly pleased at the developments. They feel that it will not be long until his great services to the country and to science will be fittingly recognized and that in spite of jealousy and hostility.

Strong Healthy Women

If a woman is strong and healthy in a womanly way, motherhood means to her but little suffering. The trouble lies in the fact that the many women suffer from weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism and are unfitted for motherhood. This can be remedied.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Cures the weaknesses and disorders of women. It acts directly on the delicate and important organs concerned in motherhood, making them healthy, strong, vigorous, virile and elastic.

"Favorite Prescription" banishes the indispositions of the period of expectancy and makes baby's advent easy and almost painless. It quickens and vitalizes the feminine organs, and insures a healthy and robust baby. Thousands of women have testified to its marvelous merits.

It Makes Weak Women Strong. It Makes Sick Women Well.

Honest druggists do not offer substitutes, and urge them upon you as "just as good." Accept no secret nostrum in place of this non-secret remedy. It contains not a drop of alcohol and not a grain of habit-forming or injurious drugs. Is a pure glyceric extract of healing, native American roots.

Foley Kidney Pills

Are tonic in action, quick in results. A special medicine for all kidney and bladder disorders. Mr. Henry Seitz, Youngstown, O., says: "I am in better condition now than I have been for years in every respect and I owe this to Foley Kidney Pills. I used only four bottles and they cleaned up my kidneys in good shape. Their action is regular and the secretions are clear, where formerly they contained a sediment. Foley Kidney Pills cured me and I do not hesitate to recommend them to others." Bolger & French.

A Popular Game.

Better Than Spanking.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

Not Jealous.

Mrs. Jawback—John, I do believe you are jealous of my first husband. Mr. Jawback—Well, no; I don't believe I'd call it jealousy. Envy is the word.—Cleveland Leader.

Foley's Kidney Remedy—An Appreciation.

L. McConnell, Catherine St., Elmira, N. Y., writes: "I wish to express my appreciation of the great good I derived from Foley's Kidney Remedy, which I used for a bad case of kidney trouble. Five bottles did the work most effectively and proved to me beyond doubt it is the most reliable kidney medicine I have ever taken." Bolger & French.

SPORTING

NEWS AND VIEWS

Much interest has been manifested on the port of those of an athletic turn of mind in the double-header basketball game to be played at the Globe next Friday night. The four teams to take part are all local fives. The first game will be between the first and second teams of the High school girls' teams, while in the following encounter the High school boys will bump up against the Quaker City five again. The highs were defeated in a one-sided game by the first team a few weeks ago but since the former have shown great improvement in their practice recently they expect to hustle their elders a little for the honors.

East Palestine's fast basketball aggregation is again demonstrating its superiority over teams of Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania, having defeated most of the teams it has met this season. The East Palestine team is considered one of the fastest independent teams in this part of the country.

The association football team organized in that town this season, also, has been maintaining the reputation East Palestine has in all lines of sports. It has played several close games with Youngstown and Niles teams and will join a league now being organized to commence work in March. The citizens of Youngstown will give a silver cup to the winners.
